Friday Fix | Tie Time

James Butler | 6 November 2015

We have slowly but surely begun to embrace our inner Dapper Dan's in recent years, with more emphasis than ever being placed on ties, lapel pins, and other aesthetic accoutrements. However, it can often be a tad difficult to find original styles on the high street that offer that perfect balance of quality, style and value.

With this in mind, mykindoftie.com has appeared on the market as a brand new Irish business that offers high quality products at a reasonable price. With ties and bow ties for just €15, and a whole host of prints and patterns to choose from, the site really is the perfect place to indulge in some flashy fashion – without breaking the proverbial bank.

This navy and red checkered bow tie is a personal favourite, with its colour palette lending itself to a plethora of suits and dapper details. Suit up, gentlemen!
